SCHOLARSHIP/ FREESHIP POLICY

Uran Education Society's College of Management & Technology is deeply committed to fostering and empowering the most promising minds, guiding them towards a path of perpetual learning and leadership. In recognition of exceptional academic achievers with immense potential, the College provides substantial scholarships that cover either a portion or the entirety of the academic fees for the entire duration or a specified period of the program. This policy has been meticulously crafted to facilitate the seamless management of scholarships, freeships, and other forms of financial support available at the College.

POLICY

- The eligibility for Fee Concession is restricted only to the Students from Uran Education Society's College of Management & Technology.
- The Fee Concession will be restricted to the extent of Tuition Fees, Term Fees, Development Fees and Sports Fee only. Any fees that are in the nature of reimbursement to the University/ Education Board / Insurance Premium/ Admission Form etc., will not qualify for concessions. However, The Management reserves the right to amend the said rule as and when required.
- If the student is availing fee concession facility, then eligibility would be decided on the basis of performance of the student in the previous/ qualifying examination and economical condition of the parents. During subsequent years, the fee concession facility would be continued subject to the improvement in academic performance of the student in the class for which fee concession was offered.
- The college is committed to reaching out to donors and urging them to extend scholarships to students in need who demonstrate merit.
- Furthermore, the college will actively inform students about the diverse range of scholarships available, along with the application procedures and eligibility criteria.
- For government-sponsored scholarships, the college will adhere to the eligibility criteria outlined in government policies.
- For all other scholarships, the eligibility criteria will be established by the college scholarship committee, in consultation with the donor where applicable.
- Corporate-sponsored scholarships will follow the eligibility guidelines set forth by the respective corporate entity.

- A selection committee, comprised of faculty and administrative staff, will be formed by the college. This committee will be tasked with the solicitation, collection, and thorough examination of applications. Upon consultation with the principal, they will put forward recommendations for consideration.
- The committee's decisions will be conclusive and binding.
- Each student will be entitled to only one scholarship per academic year.
- Scholarship funds will be either directly deposited into the students' bank accounts by the awarding entity, or if the amount is disbursed to the institution, it will promptly be issued to the students via check.
- Should it come to light that a candidate has provided inaccurate information or details in their application, or has engaged in misconduct, malpractice, or violated college policies, disciplinary action will be initiated and the awarded scholarship may be withdrawn back.
- In situations where candidates are equally qualified, preference will be given to female students and individuals from marginalized segments of society.
