Program Report -

The faculty delivered an informative lecture on the role of patents to the Ty & FY students of B. Com & B. Sc. IT. The lecture aimed to provide students with an understanding of the importance of patents, their role in promoting innovation and economic growth, and their relevance in the fields of commerce and information technology.

Below are key points focused on by the faculty-

1. Introduction to Patents
2. Importance of Patents
3. Role of Patents in Commerce
4. Role of Patents in Information Technology
5. Patents and Technological Advancements
6. Challenges and Considerations

In conclusion, the lecture on the role of patents provided Ty & FY students of B. Com & B. Sc. IT with valuable insights into the importance of patents in promoting innovation, economic growth, and the protection of inventions. The students gained a deeper understanding of the significance of patents in the fields of commerce and information technology. It is expected that the knowledge and awareness acquired from this lecture will enable the students to appreciate the role of patents in their respective fields and encourage them to explore and protect their own innovative ideas through patents in the future.

Program Report -

The faculty delivered an enlightening lecture on the role of rural women in entrepreneurship to the Ty & SY students of B. Com & B. Sc. IT. The lecture aimed to raise awareness about the significant contributions of rural women in entrepreneurship and the opportunities and challenges they face in pursuing entrepreneurial ventures.

Below are key points focused on by the faculty-

1. Introduction to Rural Women Entrepreneurship
2. Importance of Rural Women Entrepreneurship
3. Opportunities for Rural Women Entrepreneurs
4. Challenges Faced by Rural Women Entrepreneurs
5. Success Stories of Rural Women Entrepreneurs
6. Role of Technology in Empowering Rural Women Entrepreneurs

In conclusion, the lecture on the role of rural women in entrepreneurship provided Ty & SY students of B. Com & B. Sc. IT with valuable insights into the significant contributions and potential of rural women in driving rural development and economic progress. The students gained a deeper understanding of the opportunities and challenges faced by rural women entrepreneurs and the support systems available to them. It is expected that the knowledge and awareness acquired from this lecture will inspire and encourage the students to recognize the potential of rural women's entrepreneurship and work towards creating an inclusive and empowering entrepreneurial ecosystem for rural women in their future endeavors.
